The portrait drawings fall into five periods: 1865-1871, 1872-1874, 1875-1880, 1879-1889, 1890-1906. Andersen points out the remarkable consistency in Cézanne's style which existed over a period of some forty years, and shows how the stylistic continuity evolved through the development of the artist's own daemon and through his persistent self-exploration. The extensiveness of this work, the ...
